

Information about Health Services for Refugees

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS)

- How Do I Become a U.S. Permanent Resident (for Refugees and Asylees)

<https://www.uscis.gov/us-citizenship>

This U.S. Government web page educates people about U.S. citizenship requirements. It outlines the naturalization test, citizenship for military members and dependents, and dual citizenship. Links for more information on requirements and applications are provided.

- Application Procedures: Getting Derivative Refugee or Asylum Status for Your Spouse

<https://www.uscis.gov/family/family-refugees-asylees/refugee-asylee-spouses/application-procedures-getting-derivative-refugee-or-asylum-status-your-spouse>

This U.S. Government web page informs persons who entered the U.S. as a refugee or were granted asylee status within the past 2 years about the application process for derivative refugee or asylum status for their spouse. It identifies the form and documents they must submit, and outlines spouse application responsibilities.

- Humanitarian Benefits

<https://www.uscis.gov/humanitarian>

This U.S. Government web page informs people about USCIS humanitarian programs and protection to assist individuals in need of shelter or aid from disasters, oppression, emergency medical issues, and other urgent circumstances. It provides links to information about refugee and asylum status, battered spouses, children & parents, human trafficking, natural catastrophes, Temporary Protected Status (TPS), Deferred Enforced Departure (DED), considerations of deferred action for childhood arrivals, Special Immigrant Juveniles (SIJ) status, and female genital mutilation or cutting (FGM/C).

- Finding a Medical Doctor

<https://www.uscis.gov/green-card/green-card-processes-and-procedures/immigration-medical-examinations/finding-medical-doctor>

This U.S. Government web page informs people about immigration medical examinations. It contains information on finding a doctor, medical examination fees, and completing medical forms. Links to appropriate forms are provided.

The U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office of Refugee Resettlement (ORR)

- The Office of Refugee Resettlement (ORR) Programs

<http://www.acf.hhs.gov/programs/orr>

This document provides links to information about the Office of Refugee Resettlement's (ORR's) programs. Topics include agriculture, anti-trafficking, repatriation, social services, and targeted assistance.